

Cactus Chronicle

"Glendale – Proud to be the home of Luke Air Force Base"

Councilmember Phil Lieberman, Glendale Arizona

September 24, 2010

To Cactus District Residents:

Mayor Scruggs has scheduled a meeting regarding zoning for Sarival Farms, 51st & Peoria, on Thursday, September 30 at 6:30 p.m. to be held at Glendale City Hall, 5850 W. Glendale Avenue, Conference Room B3. Please be advised that no one inquired as to my availability on September 30. On that date, I will be on my way to St. George Utah to cheer my daughter, where she will run a 26-mile marathon. I have notified most of you through various sources the reason I will not be at this meeting.

However, as residents of the Cactus district I encourage you to attend the meeting and please email me with your thoughts after you have attended, at Lieberman@glendaleaz.com

Free Live Music at Glendale Main Library.

Live at the Library. Live at the Library is one of the west valley's most popular monthly musical series. The programs start earlier in the evening than in past years—at 6:30 p.m.—due to the change in library hours. All programs are free and are scheduled through December in the Main Library auditorium, 5959 W. Brown St.

Upcoming Live at the Library acts include:

- October 28 - Ensemble Indigo - This six-piece ensemble of wind, string and keyboard instruments will offer chamber music from baroque to contemporary.
- November 4 - The Hey Boyz - This Arizona-based, cowboy/bluegrass band blends lyrics of the old west with country music. These seasoned players, ranging in age from 21-64, have been together for over six years.
- December 2 - Grace Lutheran Handbell Choir - This uniquely talented group will offer favorite holiday tunes rung with their multi-sized brass bells.

Glendale Coffeehouse. Glendale Coffeehouse features two sets of area musicians and is held on the third Thursday evening of the month at 6:30 p.m. in the Main Library auditorium.

- October 21 - Randy Brown, folk originals; Gavan Wieser, punk/folk originals.
- November 18 - Dave and Barbara Baumann, contemporary folk; Robby Roberson, acoustic originals and covers.
- December 16 - Members of the Glendale Public Library's Acoustic Jam Session will take the stage to entertain audience members with holiday favorites.

For more information about the free music programs at Glendale Main Library, call 623-930-3573.

Important Traffic Information for Upcoming Cardinals Games. Cardinals fans headed to Sunday's game should be aware of suggested routes and important traffic information to have the ultimate fan experience at Glendale's sports and entertainment district.

Season ticket holders have received parking passes from the Arizona Cardinals with specific parking and traffic instructions. Maps to the assigned parking lots are printed on the back side of parking passes.

Additional information:

- Game day cash parking is available at the Glendale Renaissance Parking Garage and at Westgate City Center. Drivers should access this parking via Glendale Avenue and then south on either 93rd Avenue or 95th Avenue.
- Parking for single game ticket holders is available at the Kellis High School lot, located on the east side of 91st Avenue just north of Orangewood Avenue. A free shuttle service will run between the high school and the stadium beginning two hours before game time and ending one hour following the game.
- Parking lots open four hours prior to kick-off. Vehicles will not be permitted to line up on city streets prior to the lots opening.
- After the game, there will be reversible lanes on Maryland, west of 95th Avenue, as well as 91st Avenue.
- To safely move pedestrians in the area, 95th Avenue west of the stadium and Maryland Avenue between 93rd and 95th Avenues will be closed to vehicle traffic.

The city of Glendale has partnered with ADOT to provide real-time traffic information, and fans are encouraged to call 511 for updated traffic information. Police will be directing traffic to establish a safe and steady traffic flow. Please follow all traffic signs for direction.
